

BACHELOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION DEGREE PROGRAM REVISED 10/23/17

of non-business courses in satisfaction of business degree requirements (on a case-by-case basis and with department approval) without forcing the student to take additional business courses in order to meet a forty-eight-hour requirement.

For example, M 316 taken at UT is accepted to satisfy STA 309; a student who completes M 316 would not then be forced to take an additional three hours of business credit, in order to meet a forty-eight-hour requirement.

6. Correct table of courses considered for the 50 percent major residency requirement (50 percent of the major coursework must be completed in residence), to remove errors and reflect changes being made to the catalog. Rationale: Some information was in error or missing and must be corrected, some new classes and tracks have been added and need to be included, adjust order to match major's listings in the catalog, make wording and punctuation consistent. This is not changing requirements, but making corrections to make the table up to date.
