The special committee of the General Faculty to prepare a memorial resolution for Professor Loftus C. Carson II, School of Law, has filed with the secretary of the General Faculty the following report.

Alan W. Friedman, Secretary
General Faculty and Faculty Council
The University of Texas at Austin
Arthur J. Thaman and Wilhelmina Doré Thaman Professor of English and Comparative Literature

IN MEMORIAM
LOFTUS C. CARSON II

The University and Law School communities are greatly saddened by the passing of Loftus C. Carson II (1946-2016), The Ronald D. Krist Professor in Law.

Professor Carson served on the Texas Law faculty for more than twenty years, teaching corporations, securities regulation, nonprofit organizations, higher education and the law, and employment law. In 2002, he received the Student Bar Association Award for Teaching Excellence.

After graduating from Cornell University in 1968, Professor Carson received his law degree from Harvard Law School in 1973. He clerked for United States Third Circuit Judge Collins Seitz. While teaching, Professor Carson also earned multiple degrees: a Master in Public Affairs from Princeton; a Master of Business Administration from the University of Pennsylvania; and, a Doctorate in Education from the University of Pennsylvania.

He was a dedicated teacher and mentor to many generations of students. He will be missed by all of us.

This memorial resolution was prepared by a special committee consisting of Professors Wayne C. Schiess (Chair), John S. Dzienkowski, and Robert J. Peroni.

Distributed to the Dean of the School of Law on June 14, 2018, and posted under "Memorial Resolutions" at <https://wikis.utexas.edu/display/facultycouncil/Wiki+Home>.
